

Darya Dadykina was born in Kiev (Ukraine) in 1991. She started her music lessons at 9. Professional education she began in Kiev Specialized Lysenko Music Boarding School with Irina Barinova and graduated from National Tchaikovsky Music Academy of Ukraine by Prof. Valery Kozlov. Her Master Degree has been made at HfM "Hanns Eisler" in Berlin by Prof. Susanne Gruetzmann. In 2015 she was supported by swiss foundation „Clavarte“. She is Prize Winner of numerous competition as V. Krainev's Competition for Young Pianists (Ukraine, 2008), "New names" (Russia, 2008), Bremen European Piano Competition (Germany, 2012). Further improvements Darya received during multiple master-classes by T. Dussaut, B. Goetzke, E. Rzhanov, S. Edelman, V.Rudenko, P. Badura-Skoda, M. Ferrati, B.Bloch, O. Yablonskaya, P. Lang, F. Bidini, R. Levin, L. Zilberstein. She played as soloist, chamber musician and soloist with orchestra in Ukraine, Russia, Belarus, Uzbekistan, China, Greece, Italy, Germany, Austria, Spain. Currently Darya is making her Postgraduate Diploma by Prof. Jochen Koehler in Musikinstitut der Martin-Luther-Universitaet Halle-Wittenberg. Darya is co-founder of the International Nikolay Medtner Society (Berlin, 2017).